

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The Cimbalom World Association (CWA) is the data controller. This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The CWA complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public as specified in our constitution;
- To provide member only benefits such as the CWA News newsletter, reduced fees at the CWA Congress, advice and information.
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the CWA;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services offered by the CWA;
- To organise events which you have applied to attend.
- Our website uses 'cookie' technology in order to make the site work better for you.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Our contract with the data subject to provide services accessible to member of the public, e.g. to provide events and information.
- Our contract with the data subject to provide member's benefits. This includes supply of the CWA News via email and very occasional emails to convey important CWA information.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with others as consented by you or as necessary in order to carry out a service and for purposes connected with the CWA.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep membership records of current members. If we exclude a member for non payment of subscription or other reason, or if a member resigns records are deleted within 6 months.

Enquiry data is retained for up to one year of completing the enquiry.

Specifically, we retain accounts records, gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the CWA holds about you;
- The right to request that the CWA corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the CWA to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable) [Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means].
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable) [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics]
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
